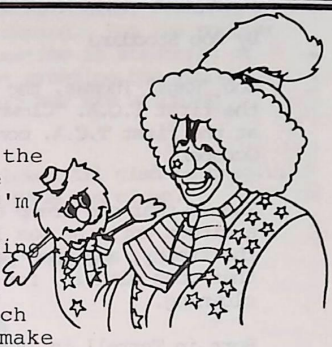
MAKE ALL CHECKS PAYABLE TO T.C.A.

PURPOSE OF T.C.A.

1. Promote, preserve and improve the profession of clowning.
2. Provide the opportunity to study the art, history and philosophy of clowning.
3. Educate its members and the general public in the wholesome and clean entertainment that is provided by the profession of clowning.
4. To provide news to the members of all clown events in the state of Texas.

EDITOR COMMENTS



Dear Joeys,

As I sit working on the Journal, on this the first day of 1984, I'm excited about our publication and looking forward to large and better Journals. We need to hear from each member this year to make it possible. No news means no Journal. This is your publication, I just put it together. The Journal is a place you can share your ideas and help other clowns to learn more about clowning.

LET'S SHARE MORE IN 84!!!

PERSONALITY PROFILE

By Bob Stoddard

Bob "Rags" Thomas, the Amarillo Tramp, was voted the first T.C.A. "Clown Ambassador of Goodwill" at the first T.C.A. convention in Arlington last October.

The 74-year-old tramp clown (who had never seen a circus until he was 35 years old) was awarded the trophy, and the paid-up lifetime membership that goes with it, for his twenty PLUS years in clowning.

Born in Terrell in 1909, Bob met a Galveston girl named Margaret and made her his wife in Irving Texas in 1948.

Fifteen years later the pair dressed up as a pair of clowns to attend a big Shrine Masquerade party and were awarded first place for their efforts. Margaret retired from clowning immediately (while she was still a first place winner), but Rags wanted more.

As a Shrine clown and a member of Clowns of America alley in Amarillo (rising as high as president in both groups) Rags has traveled from New Mexico to Florida, and from Chicago to Galveston attending conventions and entering competition which have amassed eighteen trophies and numerous ribbons, most of them for first place.

Rags is also a Goodwill Ambassador for the city of Amarillo. He has presented a lapel pin, depicting a pair of gold cowboy boots nesting on a sign that says "Amarillo", to everyone he meets. He has also passed out thousands of cards that simply brag. "I shook hands with Rags the Clown."

He loves to dance, ballroom or shuffle style. He enjoys playing the harmonica, fishing, photography, and gardening. But the popular funster's favorite pastime is strutting or dancing up the street greeting the youngsters and the oldsters who are watching the parade.

It makes the Texas clowns all glad to brag... "We SHOOK HANDS with RAGS the clown."

AREA 214 REPORTER: Bob Stoddard

C.O.A. Alley #85 had their Christmas party on Dec. 15th, members enjoyed good food and fellowship. The entertainment was in the form of a puppet show presented by Rosalie Perryman (TCA#2) and Donald "Ajax" Perryman (TCA #29). After the dinner the TCA Convention tape was played and everyone enjoyed the program. Instead of exchanging gifts this year, it was decided that we would bring food, clothing, and money for an unfortunate family of seven who lost everything when their mobile home burned. On a happier note, new officers were introduced and officially installed. The membership also presented the "Clown of the Year" award to the person that has done the most for clowning in the past year. I am proud to announce that the award was presented to me, Bob"Boppo" Stoddard for 1983.

Seven of our members participated in the "Love for Kids" Christmas party for almost 2000 handicapped and disadvantaged children. Several other clowns also helped (and were all invited to join TCA). Others who helped entertain the large group included; three bands, the Sesame Place Characters, three limozine loads of Dallas Cowboys football players, Crazy Ray, and three Santa Clauses, and a host of other volunteers.

Our clowns who attended were; James "Jim Bow" Decker (TCA #67), Lou "Honey" Stoddard (TCA #10), Juanita "Minihaha" Holdcraft (TCA #39), Michael "Rootin' Tootin' "' Cauley (TCA #50), Jan "Hayseed" Moline, Dorothy "Pokadot" Mitchell (TCA #61), and Janet "Joy Bug" Creager.

AREA 713 & 409 REPORTER: Linda Starer

Exicitement is building for the Richard "Snowflake" Snowberg workshop on "The Clown in you" at Oaks Presbyterian in No. Houston Jan. 21th. For more information contact Richard Wade 442-0294 or Lillian Martin 443-8444.

Seven months ago Rhoda "Dusty" Rhodes organized the "Jesters for Jesus" in St. Timothy's United Methodist Church in No. Houston. Currently under the direction of Tom Haygood, the 13 to 17 year olds are spreading the word of God and firmly upholding the clown code of ethics. Contact them at St. Timothy's.

Larry and Carolyn Kibbey masterfully train individuals to become professonal clowns. Their alley includes the renowned contortionist Yogi Baird who was featured on TV's "That Incredible"and the "Louisiana Hayride" as "The Human Pretzel". He is also a professional clown. For more information on the Houston Clown School Call (713) 499-5828.

Can you imagine savoring a delightful Christmas dinner in an atmosphere of clowns, magicians and circus decor? Cheerful clown alley gathered twenty-two members for a Christmas dinner and short business meeting on Dec. 6th at Circus Restaurant. The festive combination of clown friends, the Christmas holiday, and the circus setting created an event thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Wishing all readers a very healthy, safe NEW YEAR! Until next month...

It's a CLOWN WORLD after all!
By Bob Stoddard

Patches & Co. (Gary Ray) the Colleyville clown with his wife Brenda and daughter Michelle had a busy Dec. with their Wonder Dogs. They worked the Clark County Fire fighters show in Las Vegas for the seventh year. For the 8th year in a row they did the Dallas Country Club Christmas show, and the Christmas Party for American Airlines. All in their new Christmas wardrobe.

Richard Wade (our V.P.) of Houston worked four towns with Carson and Barnes Circus as a come-in clown and handling the back door.

This is a sample of a new column that I will write for the Joey Journal. Send gossip and items of interest about yourself or other clowns to me. THANKS!

A CLOWN'S PRAYER

As I stumble through this life
Help me to create more laughter than tears
Dispense more happiness than gloom
Spread more cheer than despair

Never let me become indifferent
That I will fail to see the wonder
In the eyes of a child
Or the twinkle in the eyes of the aged

Never let me forget that my total effort
Is to cheer people, make them happy
And forget momentarily
All the unpleasantness in their lives

And in my final moment
May I hear You whisper
"When you made My people smile,
You made Me smile."

FLOWERPOT THE CLOWN

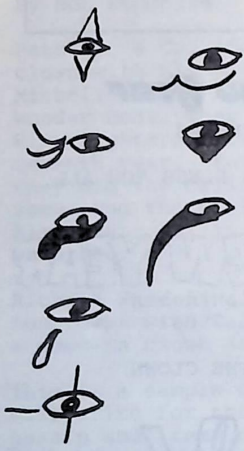
EYE FEATURES

The eye area make-up is a very important part of a clowns features.

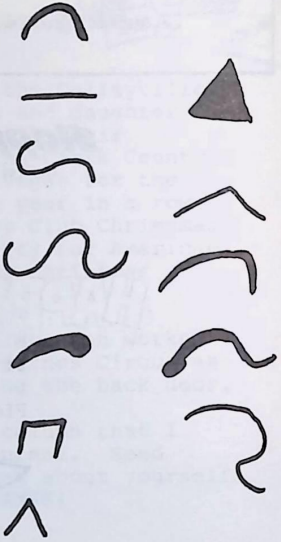
The eyes can be used to express such feelings as happiness, joy, friendliness, and sadness.

"I wear glasses, I need them to see!" some say. By all means, wear them. You will certainly be more comfortable. Design the face around the glasses, enhancing the frame shape around the eyes. If money is available, a pair of over-sized, colorful, clown frames with prescription lenses could be the answer.

EYES



EYEBROWS



Smooth with upward slant-optimism

Low, thick and close together-gloominess, firmness and severity

Thin and shape-like horizontal s Wickedness

Angular with long inner part-Haughtiness, dignity, pride

Horizontal, thick, close together-virility, will power, resolution

Straight and ang led up-unsympathetic

EYES

Prominent eyes—(large not bulging) a sensitive person, courage, intelligence, frank, honest and sometimes the dreamer

Deep set eyes—observant analytical mind, if very deep, old age or illness

Laugh lines or crows feet suggest a happy, kindly disposition.

Part of the iris is nearly always cut off by the upper lid except when eyes are opened very wide. Lower lid sometimes cuts off a portion of the iris. Eyelashes of the upper lids are longer than those of the lower lid.

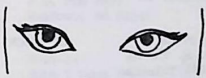
Large, round-infantile, kind, calm, mild

B

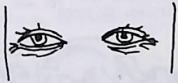
Narrow, long-cunning or nearsighted

C



Large, slanting up-bestial, fantasy beings

Slanting down-languidness or suffering



Small, crinkled-old age

VICE PRESIDENT RICHARD WADE

Another year is upon us already! Where in the world did the last one go? It seems as though the years are moving faster all the time. Possibly I'm getting slower. At any rate there is always plenty left to be done when the time runs out.

I don't know about you and making New Year's resolutions, but I've made plenty in the past and my record holds constantly...I've managed to break every one of them. However, this year let's all give some thought to making some new ones, and let's make them good ones we can keep. There are plenty that as enthusiastic clowns we ought to be able to keep. How about starting off with just resolving to be better clowns. There are many ways in which we can do this; improving our make-up, costuming, performances, our general rapport with the public. What about branching out? If you haven't worked hospitals or nursing homes you'd be surprised how much satisfaction you can derive from these sources, not to mention the appreciation you'll get from the patients. The older folks appreciate a clown just as much, if not more than the kids do. Have you tried branching out into Gospel Clowning? This is another source where you'll be not only appreciated but can be doing a service which will be a satisfaction to yourself as well. I am constantly surprised at the many clowns I meet who have not tried any of these branches of clowning..

At any rate here's hoping sincerely that each and every one of you out there in the world of clowns has the happiest, and most successful year ever and that each year gets progressively better.

In Memoriam

ONE OF OUR CLOWNS IS MISSING

It's the one who attended the Houston Clown School in 1980 with his wife Kay, deciding then and there that they would spend their retirement as clowns, in Odessa, Texas.

It's the one who only last month said that the past year was his most memorable year as a clown because he spent it as President of the new Texas Clown Association.

It's the very same man who,as "Wynky The Clown" had discovered that you, could reach people as a clown that couldn't be reached in any other way". A man whose success was measured by the happiness that he spread. Another's joy was his happiness. A child's smile was his award. This was his good fortune.

But his "bad fortune" was something else, and this clown who loved to entertain children; who said, "If you bring a little joy into someone's life your day has not been wasted"; who knew that, " Service is the price we pay for the space we occupy on this earth," succumbed to lung cancer on Tuesday December 27th.

Wynn "Wynky " Veale, the Odessa, Texas clown is dead. His wife, Kay (Klynky The Clown) and daughter Barbara Allan, son Larry, four grandchildren, and many friends are missing the man-Wynn Veale.

Many clown friends and people he entertained are missing Wynky the clown. Unfortunately, all of the people that Wynky had planned to entertain will also miss him-only they won't know what they are missing, or why they smiled or laughed a little less.

WE WHO KNEW YOU WILL MISS YOU, WYNKY!

Laugh and Live

A CLOWN'S CREED

I Believe:

Happiness of life is in the creation of joy for others. To laugh is to live.

I Believe:

The creation of mirth and the smile on the face on a little child are the beginning of a happy existence for both the giver and receiver.

I Believe:

Mankind can best serve his fellowman by placing cheerful thoughts above all others for in banishing hatred from his own heart he is setting an example not only for his own life but for those who will follow in his footsteps.

A smile is a fragile thing which once broken into can ripple through eternity cementing together man's love for one another.

I Believe:

The pursuit of happiness for others is the safests form of insurance of a harmony dominated by a single thought. To give a smile is to give a commodity more precious than all other in a materialistsic minded world.

I Believe:

I can best justify my existance by giving of myself as best I am able to cheering others that they may be spurred by my actions to greater accomplishments of their own initiative.
