A Word from the President

By Judy “Peep” Cornett

Hey there fellow clowns. What a great convention we had. Cheerful Clown Alley sure did a great job. I hope everyone that attended had as good or better time than I did. Our headliner, Julie Varholdt, was great and I heard her classes were great as well. The Theme Party was well attended and the DJ, Gordon Deltenre, was a lot of fun. Teri Stokes did all the balloon decorations including the school bus at the entrance. Wow! I saw a lot of people, even non attendees getting their picture made at the bus.

Horrible Harvey and Icky Irma made life miserable for a lot of the members and vendors/lecturers during the month prior to convention. Two of our vendors, costumer and make up, were not able to attend as a result of Irma which would have left a humongous hole in the Vendor Room, but a HERO arose. I want to thank Tricia Manuel from Pricilla Mooseburger Originals who graciously accepted our desperate plea for help. She not only brought Costumes, make up, and noses, but also brought wigs.

I want to think Mary Whipple and Pam Blacklock for their leadership as Co-Chairs and their fantastic committee for all of the hard work. The convention was a success because of the committee's efforts.

If you were at the convention, why don't you write an article and let those that were not able to make it know how much fun you had. And if you have pictures to go with the article make sure you include them. Submit it to Greg Stanford at greg@joeyjournal.com.

At the General Membership Meeting a discussion was held regarding the structure of the Convention. A lot of discussion was centered on competition. The number of people competing has dwindled and there was a request that the membership should consider 1. Combining categories such as the different makeup categories into one (we only had 9 total competitors in makeup) or 2. Instead of competition having an All Star review where people could perform but not be judged (maybe have a people's choice award) or 3. Having competition every other year or 4. Having attendees get together at the convention and come up with a performance that could be done at the convention or 5. Any combination of the above or 6. Any other suggestions. What I would like to ask each of you is to get with your alley and come up with what your alley or you think as to how you would restructure the convention to still allow for the education we get from competition but maybe encourage more participation and then give your ideas to your Area Director to bring to the next TCA Board meeting. You can also give your ideas to any board member. TCA is your organization and everyone has a voice.

Next year's convention is in Irving, August 1-5, 2018. Texas Mid-Cities Clown Alley #85 will be hosting the convention and it is going to be held at the Westin. This is the same hotel the convention was in from 2011-2013. It has been completely remodeled. Only 10 months left to register so get your check books out and send in your registration.

Our next board meeting will be Saturday, January 6, 2018. Don't forget, if you have an idea or comment for the Board contact us. The contact information for each board member is in your Joey Journal and we would love to hear from you. We want to boost the membership and make TCA better than ever and your ideas could help us get there.

I hope to see each and every one of you in Irving for the 2018 TCA Convention. I am sure it will be great.

What's So Punny?

About a month before he died, my uncle had his back covered in lard. After that, he went down hill fast.

Three conspiracy theorists walk into a bar. You can't tell me that's just a coincidence!

"Doctor, there's a patient on line 1 that says he's invisible" "Well, tell him I can't see him right now."

The future, the present and the past walked into a bar. Things got a little tense.

Just burned 2,000 calories. That's the last time I leave brownies in the oven while I nap.

APPRECIATION AWARD! Thank you! Such an HONOR!
by Mauri “Binkie” Norris

What a SHOCK! WOW! A special recognition award at the TCA 2017 Convention!

First, I was very surprised to see my husband, Rick, show up at the beginning of the awards banquet. That was really weird! Then after dinner, when Judy Cornett, TCA President, announced the special award, I was totally speechless (which doesn't happen to me very often)! I very much appreciate this recognition for all my time and efforts and dedication to TCA and clowning. And the letter of support from my husband was really a shocker! He has always supported my clowning, even when he thought I was going above and beyond.

I started clowning in 1983/1984 (I had a full-time job in the financial services industry working 45-60 hours a week). When I jumped in with both feet, the Cheerful Clown Alley had already committed to host the 1984 TCA Convention in Houston. My job for that convention was goodie bags and frankly I didn't even know what a goodie bag was! At that time, Rick was working in a job that ran 24/7 so he worked a lot of evenings, nights and weekend shifts. That left me with time on my hands for clowning. I preferred hospital clowning and for a number of years the Cheerful Clowns visited MD Anderson Cancer Center twice a month. I was usually a part of that group. It felt very rewarding to visit the patients even though some of those visits were also very trying.

In my early clowning years, I competed often in the make-up and wardrobe competitions (at TCA and COAI) and won 1st place several times (at least twice at TCA and once at COAI) as well as numerous top ten awards. (But not in the very beginning, I needed lots of help when I first started and competing got me lots of feedback and help!) I teamed up with some other Cheerful Clowns to brain-storm skits and parade routines and we competed at many TCA Conventions (often taking the same performance to the COAI Convention the next spring). We won lots of trophies and ribbons over the years. I believe the last time I competed in make-up and wardrobe competition was when the TCA president (“Twinkles”) in 2009 challenged the Board members to compete to help get the participation numbers up. Since that time I have mostly been involved in TCA Clown Administration.

In 2004 my good friend and partner in many clown skits, Lisa “Twinkles” Ezell, convinced me (I won't say she begged) to run for the position of Treasurer of TCA. I did and was elected and re-elected and served in that position for 2005-2008 until I was term limited and then I ran for the office of secretary and served in that office for 2009-2012 when I was term limited again. Then I ran again for the Treasurer position and was elected and re-elected for the years of 2013-2016. During those 12 years of board service, I also worked on the TCA Convention planning committees for 2005/2007, 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2016 mostly as the Treasurer and Registrar. After leaving the TCA board this year, I served on the TCA 2017 Convention planning committee, again in that same position. I have helped re-write or clarify some of the TCA policies and guidelines and prepared some historical information for the TCA website as well. At convention this year you could usually find me behind the registration desk or judging various competitions or making sack lunches or helping assemble the banquet centerpieces or collecting auction money or whatever else needed doing.

So I guess I have given a lot of time and energy to TCA, but I know I am not the only one. Others have served on the board even longer. They too deserve some recognition and some BIG THANKS. I know that clowning with Cheerful Clown Alley and TCA has given me the opportunity to meet some of the nicest people and make some of the best friends ever! So while I have given a lot of myself to clowning – it has given me back many times more.

Anyway, now you know a little of my history and about my involvement in TCA and clowning overall. I LOVE clowning and want to see TCA continue to exist and grow and that cannot happen without good hardworking volunteers stepping up to serve on the Board and all of the various committees. I don't plan to go away anytime soon, but please consider how you too can serve TCA and your clowning community. Thanks again, for the honor and your appreciation.
